

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contact: Stacy L. Gage, Collections & Exhibitions Manager

Dubuque Museum of Art participates in Art in Embassies program.

The Dubuque Museum of Art was recently contacted by the U.S. Department of State's Art in Embassies Program with a request to borrow work from the permanent collection to display in the U.S. Embassy in Luanda the capitol of Angola, Africa. The current Ambassador to Luanda, Dan Mozena, is from Dubuque. Given a selection of two-dimensional works that focused on Midwest scenes, the Art in Embassies curator Robert Soppelsa selected the following four works:

John Bissell's Steam Towboat

James Butler's Another View of Threshold/River Mist

Roy Haught's Barns at St. Donatus

Paul McCarthy's Sign Painting No. 2

The works will be displayed at the U.S. Embassy in Luanda along with other works of art for the duration of the ambassador's term.

Dubuque Museum of Art

701 Locust St.

Dubuque, IA 52001

Phone: (563) 557-1851

Fax: (563) 557-7826

Website: www.dbqart.com

[Editors: Images are available upon request.]